Prayer

"We Have Staked Our Lives on You"

Keith McLeod

A prayer based on Psalm 27

Light-giving, salvation-making
God,
we have staked our living and
our dying
and our being raised to new life on your steadfast love and faithfulness.

You have promised
to hide us in your shelter in the day of trouble.
You have promised to set us high
on a rock,
above those powers and forces
that batter us,
that tempt us,
that work against us.

We have sought your presence
here,
listening for your Word:
your Word that gives life;

your Word that heals the
wounded heart;
your Word that speaks truth.

Teach us your Way, O Lord Jesus.

Lead us on a well-lighted path.
In the times when you are silent, grant us the courage to wait, trusting in your grace that brings your resurrection power to our dead ends.

You are doing a 'new thing'
among us.
though, it is hard to see at times
what that 'new thing' is.
We bring to you our grieving over what is being lost, our fears about what the future
might hold,
our desire to love and serve you.

By the power of your Holy Spirit,
you are refining us,
purifying our discipleship,
pulling us into following Jesus
In this new world.

Grant us mercy and grace
to trust you more deeply,
for the only secure place is with
you,
our light and our salvation,
the stronghold of our life.

We pray all these things in the name of Jesus,
the first-born of your new
creation
our hope, our life.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
Forever. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Luke 6:6-11

Jesus Heals on the Sabbath

⁶On another Sabbath day, a man with a deformed right hand was in the synagogue while Jesus was teaching. ⁷The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees watched Jesus closely. If he healed the man's hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

⁸But Jesus knew their thoughts. He said to the man with the deformed hand, "Come and stand in front of everyone." So the man came forward. ⁹Then Jesus said to his critics, "I have a question for you. Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?"

¹⁰He looked around at them one by one and then said to the man, "Hold out your hand." So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! ¹¹At this, the enemies of Jesus were wild with rage and began to discuss what to do with him.
