2.5 CHURCH COORDINATING COUNCIL (CCC)

PURPOSE:

To keep Brookwood Baptist Church and its committees and ministry teams aligned with the Church's vision statement and strategic plan, to prayerfully seek Godly wisdom and guidance in decision-making, to build consensus within the congregation, and to provide for greater openness in congregational communication with the Church body.

DUTIES:

1. To enhance communication and facilitate coordination of activities and issues among committees, teams, and Brookwood Baptist Church. Council representatives and ministerial staff members will report on their respective teams or areas of responsibility at each meeting.
2. To aid in the administration of Brookwood Baptist Church by considering issues or proposals brought before it by committees, teams, other church groups, and church members. In considering a proposal brought before it, the Council may choose to do one of the following:
 - a. Refer the originators of the proposal to the Deacons for review of the proposal prior to submitting the proposal to the Church for a vote in a business meeting. Written comments from the Church Coordinating Council will accompany the proposal when presented to the Deacons and the Church.
Examples of proposals that must be brought before the Church for a vote include, but are not limited to, adoption of the annual church budget, revisions to the approved budget, non-budgeted expenditures, creating or staffing ministerial positions, establishment of new permanent committees or teams, changes to the church by-laws or constitution, changes to church policy or programs, and modification to church facilities or properties.
 - b. Refer the proposal back to the originating source with written comments or suggestions for the purpose of clarification, study, or modification.
 - c. Approve the proposal as presented, provided such proposal is not of a far reaching nature or does not have significant church-wide impact. All such approvals by the Council shall be reported to the Church in the next scheduled business meeting.
3. To communicate to Brookwood Baptist Church the activities of the Church Coordinating Council by reporting at quarterly business meetings and by publishing reports through various sources such as the Alabama Baptist, the church website, and Carenotes.
4. To review issues and set the agenda for quarterly business meetings.
5. To refer relevant church issues to the Strategic Planning Team (not active at present time) for study and to review proposals from the Strategic Planning Team before presentation to the Deacons and the Church. The Strategic Planning Team will make its own presentations to the Deacons and the Church.
6. To coordinate and publicize the calendar of events for the Church
7. To review proposals for ad hoc committees or teams which would address major church-wide issues.
8. To make proposals, as needed, to the Church in business meetings on issues that have originated through the work of this Council with input from the ministerial staff, Deacons, and appropriate committees or teams.

9. To recommend to the Personnel Committee to begin the process of staffing search committees for vacant ministerial positions.
10. To develop and maintain documented operating procedures for this council and to furnish copies to the Ministry Placement Committee and the Director of Administration or his designee.
11. To provide a copy of the Council's PDO to each new Council member to better train and equip new members.

ORGANIZATION:

1. Council Composition: The members of the Church Coordinating Council will include the chair, vice-chair, or a selected member from each of the following committees or teams – Deacons, Finance Committee, Personnel Committee, Ministry Placement Committee, Risk Management and By-Laws Committee, the Early Childhood Center Committee, and Mission Coordinating Team. The Senior Pastor, the Executive Pastor, the Sunday School Director, and three at-large members will complete the Council. The three at-large members will be nominated by the Ministry Placement Committee and elected by the church. In nominating at-large members for the CCC, the Ministry Placement Committee is encouraged to be inclusive of a wide range of the church body. At the time of their election to the CCC, the at-large members shall not be a member of the Deacons, Finance Committee, Personnel Committee, Ministry Placement Committee, Risk Management and By-Laws Committee, and Missions Coordinating Team and shall not be the spouse of another member of the Council. All members of the Church Coordinating Council, excluding the Pastors, should be members of Brookwood Baptist Church for at least three years. The other Ministers and the Director of Administration or his designee will be non-voting, ex-officio members of the Council and should attend each meeting.
2. Length of Service: Representatives from the Deacons, Finance Committee, Personnel Committee, Ministry Placement Committee, Risk Management and by-laws Committee, and Mission Coordinating Team shall serve one year on the council. The Sunday School Director shall serve on the council for the duration of his/her term as Sunday School Director. Each of the at-large members shall serve three-year terms with one elected each year. Each at-large member of this committee shall not be eligible for re-election as an at-large member of this committee until two years has elapsed between terms.
3. Officers of the Council: The chair of the Council shall be the at-large member who has completed one year of service on the council, and the vice-chair shall be the new at-large member on the Council. A secretary will be designated and will take minutes at all meetings. A copy of these minutes should be archived in accordance with church policy.
4. Quorum: All positions should be represented at each meeting; if unable to attend, a Council member shall send a representative. A quorum will be seven members in attendance and will be necessary for decision-making.
5. Frequency of Meetings: Meetings will be held once a month. Called meetings may be held to address emergency situations or other business. A 72-hour notice must be given in advance of a called meeting before a vote may be taken. To provide for needed continuity, a joint meeting of old and new Council members will be held before a new council begins service at which time operations, procedures, and ongoing business of the council will be reviewed.
6. Accountability: Board of Deacons and Brookwood Baptist Church.

Effective date: 08/01/06

Revised date: 06/18/2018

3. Communicate these means to the congregation and encourage their engagement.
4. Help equip BBC members to conduct outreach
5. Reach first-time visitors by integrating them into CONNECT groups.
6. Assist staff in developing strategies to make contacts with new prospects in the community.
7. Promote BBC through marketing.

Organization:

1. Team shall be composed of five members of Brookwood Baptist Church to be nominated by the Ministry Placement Committee and elected by the church. This team will also include up to three non-members who are active visitors to be selected by the Ministerial staff as a resource for this team.
2. The members will be elected for one-year terms and may serve consecutive terms.
3. The chair is selected by the Ministry Placement Committee and may serve as chair for at most two consecutive years.
4. Ministerial Staff Facilitator: Executive Pastor
5. Accountability: Church Coordinating Council, Deacons, and Brookwood Baptist Church.

2.8 DEACONS

PURPOSE:

To be God's servants to Brookwood Baptist Church and to support and assist the Ministers in the spiritual nurture of the church.

DUTIES:

1. To provide spiritual guidance for the church by prayerfully reviewing recommendations by Ministers or church committees before these are presented to the church for vote.
2. To make recommendations to the Church Coordinating Council concerning issues not relegated to any church committee or team.
3. To fervently pray for Brookwood Baptist Church.
4. To support and assist the Ministers in seeing to the spiritual and physical needs of the members and regular non-member attendees of Brookwood Baptist Church.
5. To assist the Ministers in casting the vision, goals, and strategic plans of Brookwood Baptist Church.
6. To coordinate with the Ministerial Staff, Sunday School leadership, and other appropriate committees and teams to contact those who have visited Brookwood Baptist Church and to minister to them as guests of our church.
7. To coordinate with the Ministerial Staff in ministering to the members, family, and friends of Brookwood Baptist Church who are in the hospital, recuperating at home, living in a nursing home or retirement community, or have other special concerns.
8. To nominate members of the Ministry Placement Committee. In April each year, those deacons in the last year of their three-year term of service, along with the Pastors, will comprise a committee to nominate the three new members of the Ministry Placement Committee who will begin serving their three-year term in August. These deacons are charged to select church members who have the necessary spiritual gifts, skills, temperament, and life experiences for this important committee, as well as, to select church members who represent a wide range of the church body. These deacons will also nominate from the Ministry Placement Committee, a new chair and vice chair for that committee. They should consider filling the chair position with the vice-chair from the current year. Then these new committee members and officers will be presented to the church for election.
9. Perform Lord's Supper responsibilities.

ORGANIZATION:

1. The Board of Deacons will consist of a minimum of 9 and a maximum of 40 church members, each having been a member of the church for at least two years, with one-third of them elected each year to serve three-year terms. Currently, there are 21 deacons serving on the Board. That number can be changed only by vote of the church at a business meeting. After serving a term of three years, no person shall be eligible for re-election until the lapse of two years.
2. In the fall of each year, nominations for Deacons should be solicited from the members of the church. Nominations are open to all church members who are considered adult age. Persons who are currently serving as deacons and those who served as deacon the previous year are ineligible for nomination. Also, spouses are not allowed to serve as active deacons at the same time. These nominations will then be delivered to the Ministry Placement Committee for tabulation. The results of this tabulation will be given to a team consisting of the Deacon Chair and Vice-Chair, and the Pastors for careful review and to determine willingness to serve. Then this team will recommend to the church, in a regular business meeting, a slate of deacons consisting of nominations for the exact number of positions to be filled.

3. The deacon officers shall be Chair, Vice-Chair, and Secretary.

The Vice-Chair will serve as Chair the next year.

Vice-Chair -- In November each year, at the direction of the Deacon Chair, those deacons in the last year of their three-year term of service, along with the Pastor, will comprise a committee to determine the Vice-Chair for the next year. This person shall be selected from those deacons completing the first year of their three-year term of service and should be contacted to determine if he/she is willing to serve. The Vice-Chair for the new year will be announced at the December deacon meeting.

Secretary – Before the January deacon meeting, the Chair will appoint a deacon to serve as Secretary for the year. The secretary shall take minutes at all deacon meetings. A copy of these minutes should be archived in accordance with established church policy.

4. The Deacons will meet monthly.
5. Deacons of Brookwood Baptist Church should be men and women of good standing among the church fellowship and show evidence of striving towards the goals of 1 Timothy 3:8-10, Acts 6:1-7, Micah 6:8 and Galatians 5:22-23.
6. Accountability: The Deacons are accountable to the Ministers as supporters and co-laborers as the Ministers initiate the ministries of the church; the Ministers are accountable to the Deacons by weighing their wise counsel and co-laboring with them as both parties serve the entire church. Both parties are accountable to the church body.

2.22 MINISTRY PLACEMENT COMMITTEE

PURPOSE:

To seek God's guidance and discernment in order to place spiritually gifted people in points of service for which God has prepared them.

DUTIES:

1. To enlist and nominate to the church, persons to serve as trustees, moderators, clerks and treasurers and persons to serve on church committees and teams. The proposed nominations should be first reviewed by the Church Coordinating Council and the Deacons before being presented to the church for vote. The staffing of BBC's committees and teams with persons whose spiritual gifts, skills, life experiences, and willingness to serve match the traits necessary to best perform the duties of the committee or team is crucial. Therefore, the Ministry Placement Committee's selection process must be prayerful, deliberate, informed, and include the following:
 - a. Determine the spiritual gifts, skills, and life experiences needed for a member to best perform the duties of each committee and team
 - b. Adopt and periodically review a process for determining the spiritual gifts, passions, skills, life experiences, and desires of church members for committee and team service
 - c. Consult with the current members of committees and teams for suggestions of potential new committee and team members and for potential chairs and vice-chairs
 - d. Consult with the pastor and other ministerial staff for suggestions of potential new committee and team members and for potential chairs and vice-chairs
 - e. Commit to insuring leadership continuity by enlisting church members with valuable committee and team experience, but also commit to tapping the rich leadership resource of church members with less committee and team experience
 - f. Attempt to be inclusive of a wide range of the church body in committee and team selection
2. To select committee and team chairs and vice-chairs, where appropriate.
3. To fill any vacancies in the trustees, moderators, clerks, treasurers, committees and teams that occur during the year.
4. To enlist and nominate to the church, persons to serve on ad hoc committees/teams for a limited time and for special or particular purposes.
5. To review recommendations from church committees and teams concerning revisions in their purpose, duties, or organization.
6. To recommend to the church for vote the addition or deletion of any church committee or team. This recommendation should first be reviewed by the Church Coordinating Council and the Deacons before being presented to the church for vote.
7. To tabulate nominations for deacons (refer to the Deacon Nomination Procedure PDO).
8. To develop and maintain documented operating procedures for this team and to furnish copies to the Ministry Placement Committee and Director of Administration or his designee.
9. To provide a copy of this team's operating procedures and PDO to each new committee member to better train and equip new members.
10. To collect and maintain the updated documented operating procedures and PDO's for all committees and teams.

ORGANIZATION:

1. This committee will consist of 9 members or less, with no more than 3 elected each year to serve three-year terms. Members should have been a member of Brookwood Baptist Church for at least three years. Each member of this team shall not be eligible for re-election to this team until two years has elapsed between terms. No person may serve simultaneously on more than one Administrative Committee.
2. The members of this committee will be nominated by a subcommittee of the Deacons and elected by the church. In ~~September~~ March each year, at the direction of the Deacon Chair, those deacons in the last year of their three-year term of service, along with the Pastor, will comprise a committee to nominate the three new members of the Ministry Placement Committee, who will begin serving their three-year term in ~~January~~ August. These deacons are charged to select church members who have the necessary spiritual gifts, skills, temperament, and life experiences for this important committee. These Ministry Placement Committee nominees should be contacted by this subcommittee to determine whether they are willing to serve. These deacons will also nominate from the Ministry Placement Committee, a new chair and vice chair for that committee. They should consider filling the chair position with the vice-chair from the current year. Again, the subcommittee should contact these individuals to determine whether they are willing to serve. Then these new committee members and officers will be presented to the church for election.
3. A member of the committee should be designated to take minutes at all committee meetings. A copy of these minutes should be archived in accordance with church policy.
4. Ministerial Staff Facilitator: Senior Pastor
5. Accountability: Church Coordinating Council, Deacons, Brookwood Baptist Church.

Effective date: 08/01/06

Revised date: 06/18/18

PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

PURPOSE:

To serve as the agent of Brookwood Baptist Church assuming direct responsibility for all church employees and to ensure effective and efficient personnel administration in concert with the mission of Brookwood Baptist Church.

DUTIES:

1. To establish, maintain, review, and update written policies regarding employment procedures, salary levels, employee benefits, job descriptions, and organizational structure.
2. To communicate with the Pastors in establishing and reviewing the annual work plans, goals and objectives of each member of the ministerial staff; to communicate with the Pastors in conducting an annual performance appraisal and recommending annual salary adjustments for each member of the ministerial staff.
3. To provide the Finance Committee with budgetary information regarding all personnel costs for the upcoming year.
4. To manage the personnel budget for the current year.
5. To study and recommend to the church for vote changes to the church's ministerial staff. This recommendation should first be reviewed by the Church Coordinating Council and the deacons before being presented to the church for vote.
6. To counsel with church employees on matters related to personnel issues.
7. To serve as a liaison between church employees and church committees, teams, or members
8. To communicate and coordinate with the Risk Management and By-Laws Committee concerning risk management issues dealing with personnel administration.
9. To coordinate with the Church Coordinating Council to insure efficiency and effectiveness during periods of vacancies in the ministerial staff and non-ministerial staff. In particular, the Personnel Committee should determine how the duties and responsibilities of the vacant position are to be covered and whether a long-term interim will be secured. In the hiring of a long-term interim, the interim and the Personnel Committee should agree on a written employment document. The recommendation to hire a long-term interim for a ministerial vacancy should be reviewed by the Church Coordinating Council and the Deacons before being presented to the church for vote.
10. As directed by the Church Coordinating Council, to recommend a slate of church members to comprise a Pastor Search Committee if the church is without a pastor. This recommendation should first be reviewed by the Church Coordinating Council and the Deacons before being presented to the church for vote.
11. In consultation with the Pastors, to recommend the process by which ministerial staff positions, other than the Pastors, are filled. Options include, but are not limited to, a church-elected search committee, a church-elected committee to assist the Pastor and other appropriate ministers in screening and interviewing candidates, or a sub-committee of the Personnel Committee to assist the Pastor and other appropriate ministers in screening and interviewing candidates. This recommendation should first be reviewed by the Church Coordinating Council and the Deacons before being presented to the church for vote.
12. To coordinate with a Ministerial Search Committee and the Finance Committee in establishing beginning salary and benefits for a prospective minister.
13. To direct the hiring of all non-ministerial staff. In the hiring of an Executive Pastor or his designee and a Director of the Early Childhood Center, the Personnel Committee is highly encouraged to seek input from appropriate church committees and teams. Also, the Personnel

- Committee should inform the Church Coordinating Council, the Board of Deacons, and the church about the hiring of non-ministerial staff.
14. To develop and maintain documented operating procedures for this team and to furnish copies to the Ministry Placement Committee and Director of Administration or his designee.
 15. To provide a copy of this committee's operating procedures and PDO to each new committee member to better train and equip new members.

2.40 DEACON BALLOT COUNTING PROCESS

Purpose

To oversee and participate in the process of securing Deacon nominations.

Organization

The Deacon Ballot Counting Committee should include the following:

- All or at least 3 member of the Ministry Placement Committee (MPC).
- The Deacon chair.
- The Deacon vice-chair.

Duties and Procedure

1. In the fall of each year, nominations for deacons should be solicited from the members of the church. Nominations are open to all church members who are considered adult age. Persons who currently serve as deacons, those who served as deacon the previous year, and spouses of active deacons are ineligible for nomination.
2. The nomination ballots will be collected from the ballot box by at least 2 members of the Ministry Placement Committee on the last day of nominations and taken to a designated room for counting.
3. The paper & electronic nominations will then be counted by a committee consisting of at least three members of the MPC, the deacon Chair and Vice-chair. All signed paper & any electronic nomination ballots will be compiled into a list of those receiving nominations, in descending order from highest number of nominations to lowest number of nominations.
4. After initialing this list, the MPC members will give the compiled list to the Chair and Vice Chair of the deacons.
5. The Pastors, deacon Chair, and/or deacon Vice Chair will review the list and consult with staff ministers concerning the worthiness of each person based on Biblical qualifications, for example, I Timothy 3:13.
6. The Pastors, deacon Chair, and deacon Vice Chair will then contact those qualified candidates with the highest number of nominations until all the vacant positions are filled.
7. This slate of nominees will be presented to the church for a vote.
8. Staff Facilitator: Senior Pastor
9. Accountability: Church Coordinating Council, Brookwood Baptist Church.

2.41 ROLLISON FUND COMMITTEE

PURPOSE:

To oversee the Rollison Fund

DUTIES:

1. To consider proposals from mission teams or church members requesting funding from the Rollison Fund for Missions within the United States, and to determine whether these requests will be granted. The committee will then report their decisions to those parties requesting funding as well as to both the Mission Coordinating Team and the Church Coordinating Council.
2. To quarterly review the status of the Rollison Fund.

ORGANIZATION:

1. The members will be nominated by the Ministry Placement Committee and elected by the church.
2. This committee will consist of three members, each of whom must be a member of Brookwood Baptist Church. At least one of the members must be an active deacon, preferably the deacon chair, of BBC and at least one must not be an active deacon of BBC. Each member will serve a one-year term and is eligible to serve for consecutive terms.
3. The chair of the committee will be selected by the Ministry Placement Committee and may serve as chair for consecutive terms.
4. A member of the committee should be designated to take minutes at all committee meetings. A copy of these minutes should be archived in accordance with church policy.
